

ATRIUM's 10th National Undergraduate Conference: Tomorrow's doctor: clinician, teacher or scientist?

3rd February 2018
The Chancellor's Building, Little France, Edinburgh

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

Time	Venue	Activity
0900 - 0930	Main Foyer	Registration
0930 - 1015	Auditorium B	Talk: "Regenerative Neurology" Professor Siddharthan Chandran
1015 - 1100	Auditorium B	Talk: "Academic General Practice: a career for frustrated specialists?" Dr Luke Daines
1100 - 1145	UG Teaching Room & Seminar Room 2	Coffee & Poster session 1
1145 - 1155	Auditorium B	Student Oral Presentation: "Prognostic ability of the FOUR score assessment of consciousness: a systematic review" Billy Foo
1155 - 1205	Auditorium B	Student Oral Presentation: "Associations of dietary and plasma vitamin C with skeletal muscle mass in the EPIC-Norfolk cohort of older individuals" Lucy Lewis
1205 - 1215	Auditorium B	Student Oral Presentation: "An assessment of long-term outcomes following surgery for Cauda Equina Syndrome" James Hazelwood
1215 - 1300	Auditorium B	Talk: "Preventing self-poisoning - turning an undergraduate project into a lifetime's work" Professor Michael Eddleston
1300 - 1400	UG Teaching Room & Seminar Room 2	Lunch & Poster session 2
1400 - 1500	Seminar Room 4	Workshop: "To teach is to learn twice – making the most of clinical teaching opportunities" Dr Janet Skinner

	Seminar Room 5	Workshop: "Making sense of numbers in clinical research" Dr David Chinn
1500 - 1600	Seminar Room 4	Workshop: "How to answer clinical questions using systematic reviews" Dr Susan Shenkin & Dr Rebecca Woodfield
	Seminar Room 5	Workshop: "Critical Appraisal and Getting Your Work Published" Dr David Chinn
1600 - 1630	Auditorium B	Panel discussion and Q&A: "The Academic Foundation Programme"
1630 - 1640	Auditorium B	Prize giving & Closing remarks