

This year's Ethnic Minority Welsh Women Achievement Association (EMWWAA) awards ceremony will take place on Saturday 30th March 2019 at Cardiff City Hall.

Drinks reception 6pm, followed at 6.30pm by dinner, awards ceremony and entertainment.

- Award presentation by the First Minister of Wales, Rt Hon Mark Drakeford AM
- Speeches by the chief guests the High Commissioner of India Ruchi Ghanashyam and Dame Professor Donna Kinnair
- Stunning, colourful entertainment including world-renowned cellist Anup Biswas and orchestra
- Delicious dinner cooked by multiple award-winning chef Stephen Gomes

The programme will be compered by the brilliant and talented BBC presenter Beverley Humphreys, accompanied by the talented Uzo Iwobi. The evening will finish with a disco and Bollywood dancing. Come and join us for the celebrations!

For further information please contact:

Professor Meena Upadhyaya: Upadhyaya@Cardiff.ac.uk

Ayesha Hameed: HameedA2@cardiff.ac.uk

A donation from the proceeds of the evening will be made to Cancer Research Wales

Tickets: £30 per person (includes reception drinks and wine, dinner, glittering awards ceremony and stunning entertainment)

Dress code: Black Tie/National Dress

Buy your tickets at:
<https://doctorsacademy.org.uk/CourseNW/EMWN/>

Find out more about EMWWAA:
<http://emwwaa.org.uk>
Twitter: @EMWWAA
<https://www.facebook.com/EMWWAA>

