Glasgow MedTech Conference 2023: Innovations in Healthcare - Technology Enhancing Lives

Glasgow University Medtech's flagship annual conference took place on Saturday 18th March 2023.

It was hosted in the new ARC building on campus which was a perfect venue to welcome delegates and provide an opportunity to network and inspire.

The morning consisted of a number of inspiring talks from innovators, researchers and clinicians working in the cutting edge of technology which will enhance the lives of our patients and communities.

The afternoon consisted of a variety of workshops which ranged from virtual reality experiences to Pitching 101. Delegates also had the opportunity to immerse themselves in the latest medtech through the healthcare industry stall showcase.
