

University of Glasgow Dementia Conference 2018

24th November 2018

New Lister Building, Glasgow Royal Infirmary, 8-16 Alexandra Parade, Glasgow

Course Programme

0900 - 0915	Registration
0915 - 0930	Welcome address
0930 - 1000	Lecture: Swallowing Problems in People with Dementia - Professor David J Stott, David Cargill Chair of Geriatric Medicine, University of Glasgow Institute of Medical Sciences
1000 - 1030	Lecture: " If 10% of Dementia is Traumatic Brain Injury Related, Should We Ban Rugby " by Dr Willie Stewart, Consultant Neuropathologist, Honorary Clinical Associate Professor, Institute of Neuroscience and Psychology Administration

1030 - 1100 Tea break

1100 - 1130	Lecture " Playlist for Life' by" by Andy Lowndes, Deputy Chair for Playlist for Life
1130 - 1200	Lecture: You Can Make a Difference by Tommy Whitelaw, UK Project Lead, Dementia Carer Voices

1200 - 1245 Lunch and poster presentations

1245 - 1315	Lecture: Biomarkers for Dementia- Early Diagnosis the Holy Grail by Dr Calum Sutherland, Cellular Medicine, University of Dundee
1315 - 1345	Lecture: "Capacity to consent and Scottish Incapacity Legislation" by Dr Cesar Rodriguez, Consultant Old Age Psychiatrist, Associate Medical Director, NHS Tayside

1345 - 1400 Tea break

1400 - 1530	Workshops
	1. Workshop by Peter Connelly, Neuroprogressive & Dementia Network, Ninewells Hospital and Medical School
	2. Communication applications for patients and carers by Dr Norman Alm, Honorary research fellow, University of Dundee
	3. Workshop TBC
1530 - 1600	Workshop: Dissociating cognitive functions in dementia: diagnostic, prognostic, practical and moral dimensions by Dr. Thomas H. Bak, University of Edinburgh
1600 - 1615	Poster prize presentations and close