Please note that the university does not offer any parking facilities, and off-road parking is the only option.

Where to Report:

When you arrive at the School of Biosciences, kindly report to the foyer. A member of the team will direct you to the appropriate room.

III. BREAKS FOR REFRESHMENTS AND LUNCH

Refreshments and lunch will be served in a room on the floor above the Dissection Room. No food or drinks of any kind are allowed inside the Dissection Room.

IV. CLOTHES

The University will provide aprons/lab coats for you to wear in the Dissection Room, but it does not provide scrubs. You are very welcome to bring your own scrubs to wear in the Dissection Room. Changing room facilities are available. You will need a £1 coin for the locker.

V. USE OF MOBILE PHONES AND ELECTRONIC DEVICES

As you would have noted in the short video you watched when you completed the registration, mobile phones and other electronic devices are strictly prohibited inside the Dissection Room. If a delegate is found to be using any electronic device at any time inside the Dissection Room, the University reserves the absolute right to expel the individual from the Dissection Room immediately. This decision will be irrevocable.

VI. HANDLING THE DONOR (CADAVER)

You are politely, yet strongly, advised to handle and operate on the donor with care and respect. No tissue should be removed from the donor, and any tissue removed as part of the operations should be replaced (e.g., spleen). As in the operating theatre, no instruments, sharps or swabs should be left inside the body. All opened incisions must be closed at the end of the day.

We look forward to seeing you at the course. In the interim, please do not hesitate to contact us at info@doctorsacademy.org.uk if you have any queries.

Please ring +44 (0) 29 2061 6765 or +44 (0) 75 3426 0131 if you need any help on the day of the course with regards to directions to the venue.

With very best wishes,
