

Doctor as a Scholar and a Scientist: International Research Course for Medical Students and Foundation Year Doctors

13th October 2018

Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street, W1G 0AE, London, United Kingdom

Course Programme

- 0900 Registration, tea and coffee
- 0945 Welcome and introduction, Mr George Solomou, Council Member, Students Section, Royal Society of Medicine
- 1015 Seminar 1: To Research or not to Research?, Dr Marinos Koulouroudias, Core Surgical Trainee, London
- 1045 Seminar 2: Strategic planning in pursuit of research opportunities, Dr Rafail A Kotronias, Academic Clinical Fellow, Oxford
- 1115 Seminar 3: Academic foundation: What are they looking for with regards to research?, Dr Hugo L Horfsall Academic Foundation Trainee, Cambridge
- 1145 Panel discussion

1215 Lunch

- 1315 Seminar 4: Intercalated Degree: How to get the most out of it, Professor Divya Maitreyi Chari, Keele – Delivered by Dr Sarah Hart
- 1345 Seminar 5: Writing for publication as a medical student: finding your voice, Dr Julie Browne, Senior Lecturer, Cardiff
- 1415 Panel Discussion

1445 Tea/Coffee

- 1515 Seminar 6: National collaborative studies: How to get involved and how to run my own, Dr Greg Neal-Smith Academic Foundation Trainee, Oxford
- 1545 Seminar 7: National Collaborative Initiatives for students: My experience, Emily Mills, Medical student, Student Audit and Research in Surgery Collaborative
- 1600 Panel Discussion
- 1630 Closing remarks
Mr George Solomou, Council Member, Students Section, Royal Society of Medicine
- 1700 Close of meeting
Evaluation surveys and certificates will be sent by email