

The 1st National Northern England Student Neuro Conference: Neuroscience Across Borders

Feedback - November 2022

The 1st National Northern England Student Neuro Conference: Neuroscience Across Borders

The neurological societies of Liverpool University, Manchester University and Newcastle University held the 1st National Northern England Student Neuro Conference on Saturday 19th November 2022.

The conference discussed a range of topics within the specialties of neurology and neurosurgery, with a consideration of both paediatrics and adults.

A number of international speakers discussed their interests in the specialty and the cutting-edge research in which they are involved.

A range of workshops were conducted to enable delegates to practice essential skills, perform clinical examinations, and take history.

This conference supported the Brain Charity, and all proceeds were given to the Charity. A raffle was also be held to raise further funds for the Charity.
