Viva Practice for Colorectal Trainees Sitting the FRCS Exit Exam

This half-day course was intended for trainees with a declared subspecialty interest in colorectal surgery preparing for the FRCS (Gen Surg) Exit Exam. The session comprised of active case discussions and viva practice for a small number of delegates. The highlight of the course was the one-to-one vivas and focused, individual, structured feedback. The course was primarily intended for those who are preparing to appear for the exam in September 2021.
